

Rockwool NEU9, Neuburg/Donau, Bavaria, Germany

ROCKWOOL International A/S, Hovedgaden 584, DK-2640 Hedehusene

Service area	Contract value	Project duration
Environmental Consulting, Land Recycling, Infrastructure Planning, Contaminated Sites and Soil Protection, Geotechnical Engineering, Road and Civil Engineering, Civil Engineering	ca. 1,500,000 €	02/2018 – ongoing

Project description:

The Rockwool Group is a globally operating producer of insulation products. Since 2018 the new production line NEU9, the 9th production line in the Region Central Western Europe (CWE) region, has been built in Neuburg, Bavaria, Germany.

Further project data:

- multinational and multilingual project team
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6jEg-iBX-cHM&feature=youtu.be>

Purpose:

- expansion of production
- factory expansion
- factory modernisation

Our services:

- geotechnical investigation, geotechnical planning, geotechnical consultancy on site during construction & quality assurance
- investigation of anthropogenic fillings, site assessment, site remediation & communication with local authorities
- building assessment and demolition with on site management
- infrastructure and utilities planning
- environmental and land zoning planning, assisting in the Environmental Impact Assessment & Monitoring of Terms and Conditions, communication with authorities
- project management & site management including time management, cost tracking, contractor management, management of site logistics to avoid interruptions to the existing production

Client benefits:

- numerous fields of expertise in one hand and coordinated approach
- short ways of communication
- innovative & agile project management
- agile Planning with short term notice
- experienced project team
- project timeframe kept under 2 years
- good local networks and access to local knowledge